

NABFINS Website

Beware of Recruitment Scams

It has been observed that some fraudsters are using the name of NABFINS for hiring staff without any such approval by the Company. In this regard, it is informed that NABFINS, never asks for money in return for an interview or a job. It is against our code of conduct and business values. Applying for any of the jobs on our websites does not cost or otherwise NABFINS does not charge any fees to job seekers and follows total transparent recruitment processes.

If you receive a message from someone impersonating a NABFINS Consultant/Agent on any social media platforms seeking your personal information with the promise of a job opportunity, please don't respond and forward us the details for taking action against such fraudsters.

We encourage you to visit our NABFINS Office and/or NABFINS website (www.nabfins.org (or) <https://nabfins.org/Careers/>) to know about the job openings and register as a candidate.

NABFINS's job recruitment process involves in-person and/or video conference interviews.

NABFINS sends email communication to job applicants from the email domain "@nabfins.org". In case you receive an email from a different domain claiming to be from a Consultant/Agent at NABFINS Recruitment, do not reply, it should be assumed to be fraudulent.

Never click on any suspicious links on the message or email.

If you are unsure of any kind of messages that you have received from someone posting as one of our Consultants/Agents, you are requested to forward the message as an attachment to hr@nabifns.org.
